Leave during Term Time

You are required under the Education Act (1996) to ensure your child attends school regularly. Schools should not authorise absences if they believe it is to the detriment of a student's education or if the absences are during school exam periods and SAT's.

We would advise that you consider very seriously how the absence will affect your child's education. National statistics show 10 days absence in any academic year does have a negative effect on attainment. Schools are not obliged to provide work for students taking leave of absence, however some schools may choose to do this.

The government advises that family holiday or any refusal of leave of absence must be recorded as unauthorised by the school on the student's records. As you may be aware an accumulation of unauthorised absences may result in legal proceedings against you either through a Fixed Penalty Notice or the Magistrates' Court.

If the head teacher does not approve an application for a leave of absence an appeal can be made through the Governing Body. This cannot be made retrospectively.
